Narrative
-Victim David Bellavia reports that he is in the process of being divorced from his wife Deanna Bellavia and has been living at 2289 Oak Orchard River Rd. in the Town of Ridgeway since January of 2016. Most recently David states that in December of 2019 he filed for divorce and that the matter is currently pending in Genesee County Family Court. David states that sometime around July of 2020 business associates of his in Texas began receiving harassing voicemails and messages on their social media accounts that were of a harassing nature and defaming to David. David also states that Deanna was additionally posting items on her blog that were of a harassing nature. David states that they appeared in Genesee County Family Court on September 24, 2020 and that the above stated harassment was presented to the Court. At that time an order was drafted that Deanna was not to communicate in any manner with any of David's coworkers, employers, military supervisors. In addition to that the only communication between David and Deanna was to be about the children and only via an app called "Appclose" that was previously agreed upon. David states that Deanna continued to harass him using the Appclose app by accusing him of having an affair and making allegations of physical abuse. David states that Deanna would message him and basically try and extort him by threatening to expose things that are alleged in the divorce in an attempt to ruin his professional career if he doesn't settle the divorce on her terms. David states that they were back in Genesee County family court on December 10, 2020 to re-address Deanna's continued harassment of himself and her continuous violation of the Courts order. At that time David states that the Court was clear that Deanna is only to communicate with David specifically about the children and only through Appclose. David states that he received repeated messages on Appclose from Deanna on January 5, 2021 about insurance cards that was not necessary as she acknowledged that there was secondary insurance in effect and it was simply a matter of Deanna having to call the insurance company, which she is authorized to do, and get the information she needed. David states that even after providing Deanna the information that she requested she then had their 13 year old son Aiden call David and then Deanna got on the phone harassing David about where he was and whom he was with. On January 6, 2021 David states that Deanna continued to harass him with messages on Appclose about NYS guidelines for COVID testing as it relates to his travel. David states that Deanna continued this harassment in a similar way on January 7, 2021 to include messages on Appclose about a water bill which was clearly not about the children. David states that on January 8, 2021 Deanna again continued to harass him about their adult son Evan looking for David to pay additional expenses that are not outlined in there current court order. David states that Deanna continues to use any excuse or situation that she can for a reason to contact him and harass him despite his repeated requests that she not contact him outside of direct information about the children. David states that even after direct orders from Family Court Deanna continues to use the Appclose app to harass and annoy him not solely for the purpose of communicating about essential information about the children. David wishes for Deanna to be charged with harassment for her conduct and also requests an order of protection.(See Supporting Deposition of David Bellavia) -01/26/21 R/O (Reporting Officer - Inv Black) did complete information's charging Deanna Bellavia with the above listed charges and Town of Ridgeway Justice Kujawa signed an arrest warrant for Bellavia for said charges. R/O did speak to Deanna and then ultimately her Attorney Steve Sercu and made arrangements for Deanna to turn herself in on 1/27/21 at 1700 Hrs. -01/27/21 Deanna Bellavia did meet with R/O at the Orleans County Public safety Building for the purpose of arrest at about 1645 Hrs. Deanna was issued an appearance ticket for the above charges with a return date of March 22, 2021 In the Town of Ridgeway Justice Court. Deanna was then directed to report to the Orleans County Jail for process and arraignment in CAP court as the victim David Bellavia had requested an order of protection. Deanna asked if it was possible to report to the jail for process and then be released and return at 1900 Hrs for CAP court as compared to waiting until 1845 - 1900 Hrs to report and be processed and then arraigned. R/O spoke with Jail Lieutenant Christopher who agreed to allow Deanna to report immediately for processing, leave once processed, and then return for her court appearance. Deanna was advised of same and she agreed to report to the jail directly from the public safety building. Case closed arrest.

SUPPORTING DEPOSITION

Deanna M. King Aka Deanna M. Bellavia
DEFENDANT

I David G. Bellavia Dob 11/10/1975 residing at 2289 Oak Orchard River Rd Waterport NY 14571

BY THIS SUPPORTING DEPOSITION MAKE THE FOLLOWING ALLEGATION OF FACT IN CONNECTION WITH AN ACCUSATORY INSTRUMENT FILED, OR ABOUT TO BE FILED, WITH THIS COURT AGAINST THE ABOVE DEFENDANT.

That I currently reside at 2289 Oak Orchard River Rd in the Town of Ridgeway County of Orleans, State of New York and have since January of 2016. I am in the process of Divorce from my wife Deanna Bellavia, AKA Deanna King and currently have a pending case in the Genesee County Family Court as Deanna and my children reside in the city of Batavia. I filed for divorce in December of 2019 and around July of 2020 associates of mine who reside in Texas began receiving voicemails and messages on their social media accounts from Deanna that were of a harassing nature. The hundreds of communications over a three day period were essentially spreading malicious rumors and defaming me, threatening these people, even occurring at their place of work and contacting their work associates. In addition to this Deanna started to say untruthful and harassing statements about me that were solely intended to harass me on her blog CynicalMother. In addition to that a friend of Deanna's named Sandra (Betters) Nelson then sent an email to one of my associates in Texas and stated that I am a physical spouse abuser which was harassing in nature. On September 24, 2020 we appeared in Family Court in Genesee County and all of this harassment was presented to the court. The Judge ordered Deanna to stop immediately and an Order was drafted that stated that Deanna was not to communicate in any manner with myself, my coworkers, employer's websites, social media, fellow employees, Military supervisors, etc. The Court was clear that there was to be no direct contact and that we were only to communicate about the children via an app called "Appclose", as this was agreed upon previously. After that Deanna continued to harass me by using the Appclose app. Deanna continued her unrelenting harassment using the AppClose app by accusing me of an alleged affair and making allegations of physical abuse. She called me two times, leaving voicemail messages in direct violation of the order. In addition Deanna was attempting to extort me by threatening me that she's going to publicly expose things alleged in the divorce in an attempt to ruin my professional career if I don't settle our divorce on her terms. On December 10, 2020 we again appeared in Genesee County Family Court to address this continued campaign of harassment by Deanna and her non-compliance with the Court Order. At that time Judge Zambito reiterated on the record that Deanna and I are only to communicate on Appclose and only about the children. On January 5 of 2021, Deanna continuously messaged me on AppClose about new insurance cards. When I provided her with the information and instructions on how to obtain the information she needed about the insurance and even acknowledged that we have secondary insurance that she could have used in place of contacting me. At that time I received a call from my 13 year old son Aiden, and he said mom wants to talk to you. Not wanting to put my son in the middle of Deanna's continuing harassment, I remained on the line. Deanna came on the phone and started to go on about the insurance information that she was messaging me about on AppClose, even though I had already provided her the information via AppClose in a message. Deanna stated her already established displeasure over the insurance issue at hand. Deanna then went on to say "I don't care where you are or if you are with your girlfriend", and at that moment I hung up the phone. My phone immediately rang again showing my son Aiden's number and I just dismissed it. There was absolutely no purpose for the call other than for Deanna to harass me by making sarcastic and suggestive statements to me about where I was and who I was with. I have blocked Deanna's number taking away her ability to call me from her own phone. This is why she circumvented the order again, this time using my son

BY THIS SUPPORTING DEPOSITION MAKE THE FOLLOWING ALLEGATION OF FACT IN CONNECTION WITH AN ACCUSATORY INSTRUMENT FILED, OR ABOUT TO BE FILED, WITH THIS COURT AGAINST THE ABOVE DEFENDANT.

Aiden to call me on his phone. This non-essential messaging continued on to January 6 and Deanna then messaged me that she wants me to follow NYS guidelines for rapid COVID testing before I travel in the future. She doesn't know my schedule or my travel itinerary. She accused me of being in states I did not visit. She again used the AppClose messaging system with a similar basic message on January 7 which I ignored. Later that evening Deanna continued harassing me again using AppClose by messaging me about a water bill and clearly not about our children as directed by the Court. In addition Deanna began to message me again using AppClose on January 8 about our adult son and was looking for me to pay for additional expenses not outlined in our current order. I again told Deanna that the app was only to be used for information for the children and not for requesting additional money or for continuous harassment. Our son Evan who she references in the message is soon to be 21 years of age and capable of contacting me directly if he needs money. When he did, I paid his bill as requested. Deanna repeatedly uses any excuse or situation to constantly harass and annoy me. I have told her repeatedly not to have direct contact with me as ordered by Judge Zambito and only through the AppClose app, only about our children. Deanna has continuously harassed me despite direct orders from Family Court not to do so. I am requesting the Orleans County District Attorney's Office to investigate this matter and to prosecute Deanna to the fullest extent of the law. In addition I am requesting an order of protection against Deanna. The above facts are true to the best of my memory and knowledge.

Narrative
-Victim David Bellavia reports that he is in the process of being divorced from his wife Deanna Bellavia and has been living at 2289 Oak Orchard River Rd. in the Town of Ridgeway since January of 2016. Most recently David states that in December of 2019 he filed for divorce and that the matter is currently pending in Genesee County Family Court. David states that sometime around July of 2020 business associates of his in Texas began receiving harassing voicemails and messages on their social media accounts that were of a harassing nature and defaming to David. David also states that Deanna was additionally posting items on her blog that were of a harassing nature. David states that they appeared in Genesee County Family Court on September 24, 2020 and that the above stated harassment was presented to the Court. At that time an order was drafted that Deanna was not to communicate in any manner with any of David's coworkers, employers, military supervisors. In addition to that the only communication between David and Deanna was to be about the children and only via an app called "Appclose" that was previously agreed upon. David states that Deanna continued to harass him using the Appclose app by accusing him of having an affair and making allegations of physical abuse. David states that Deanna would message him and basically try and extort him by threatening to expose things that are alleged in the divorce in an attempt to ruin his professional career if he doesn't settle the divorce on her terms. David states that they were back in Genesee County family court on December 10, 2020 to re-address Deanna's continued harassment of himself and her continuous violation of the Courts order. At that time David states that the Court was clear that Deanna is only to communicate with David specifically about the children and only through Appclose. David states that he received repeated messages on Appclose from Deanna on January 5, 2021 about insurance cards that was not necessary as she acknowledged that there was secondary insurance in effect and it was simply a matter of Deanna having to call the insurance company, which she is authorized to do, and get the information she needed. David states that even after providing Deanna the information that she requested she then had their 13 year old son Aiden call David and then Deanna got on the phone harassing David about where he was and whom he was with. On January 6, 2021 David states that Deanna continued to harass him with messages on Appclose about NYS guidelines for COVID testing as it relates to his travel. David states that Deanna continued this harassment in a similar way on January 7, 2021 to include messages on Appclose about a water bill which was clearly not about the children. David states that on January 8, 2021 Deanna again continued to harass him about their adult son Evan looking for David to pay additional expenses that are not outlined in there current court order. David states that Deanna continues to use any excuse or situation that she can for a reason to contact him and harass him despite his repeated requests that she not contact him outside of direct information about the children. David states that even after direct orders from Family Court Deanna continues to use the Appclose app to harass and annoy him not solely for the purpose of communicating about essential information about the children. David wishes for Deanna to be charged with harassment for her conduct and also requests an order of protection. -01/26/21 R/O (Reporting Officer - Inv Black) did complete information's charging Deanna Bellavia with the above listed charges and Town of Ridgeway Justice Kujawa signed an arrest warrant for Bellavia for said charges. R/O did speak to Deanna and then ultimately her Attorney Steve Serou and made arrangements for Deanna to turn herself in on 1/27/21 at 1700 Hrs.

Deanna M. King Aka Deanna M. Bellavia

I David G. Bellavia Dob 11/10/1975 residing at 2289 Oak Orchard River Rd Waterport NY 14571

BY THIS SUPPORTING DEPOSITION MAKE THE FOLLOWING ALLEGATION OF FACT IN CONNECTION WITH AN ACCUSATORY INSTRUMENT FILED, OR ABOUT TO BE FILED, WITH THIS COURT AGAINST THE ABOVE DEFENDANT.

That I currently reside at 2289 Oak Orchard River Rd in the Town of Ridgeway County of Orleans, State of New York and have since January of 2016. I am in the process of Divorce from my wife Deanna Bellavia, AKA Deanna King and currently have a pending case in the Genesee County Family Court as Deanna and my children reside in the city of Batavia. I filed for divorce in December of 2019 and around July of 2020 associates of mine who reside in Texas began receiving voicemails and messages on their social media accounts from Deanna that were of a harassing nature. The hundreds of communications over a three day period were essentially spreading malicious rumors and defaming me, threatening these people, even occurring at their place of work and contacting their work associates. In addition to this Deanna started to say untruthful and harassing statements about me that were solely intended to harass me on her blog CynicalMother. In addition to that a friend of Deanna's named Sandra (Betters) Nelson then sent an email to one of my associates in Texas and stated that I am a physical spouse abuser which was harassing in nature. On September 24, 2020 we appeared in Family Court in Genesee County and all of this harassment was presented to the court. The Judge ordered Deanna to stop immediately and an Order was drafted that stated that Deanna was not to communicate in any manner with myself, my coworkers, employer's websites, social media, fellow employees, Military supervisors, etc. The Court was clear that there was to be no direct contact and that we were only to communicate about the children via an app called "Appclose", as this was agreed upon previously. After that Deanna continued to harass me by using the Appclose app. Deanna continued her unrelenting harassment using the AppClose app by accusing me of an alleged affair and making allegations of physical abuse. She called me two times, leaving voicemail messages in direct violation of the order. In addition Deanna was attempting to extort me by threatening me that she's going to publicly expose things alleged in the divorce in an attempt to ruin my professional career if I don't settle our divorce on her terms. On December 10, 2020 we again appeared in Genesee County Family Court to address this continued campaign of harassment by Deanna and her non-compliance with the Court Order. At that time Judge Zambito reiterated on the record that Deanna and I are only to communicate on Appclose and only about the children. On January 5 of 2021, Deanna continuously messaged me on AppClose about new insurance cards. When I provided her with the information and instructions on how to obtain the information she needed about the insurance and even acknowledged that we have secondary insurance that she could have used in place of contacting me. At that time I received a call from my 13 year old son Aiden, and he said mom wants to talk to you. Not wanting to put my son in the middle of Deanna's continuing harassment, I remained on the line. Deanna came on the phone and started to go on about the insurance information that she was messaging me about on AppClose, even though I had already provided her the information via AppClose in a message. Deanna stated her already established displeasure over the insurance issue at hand. Deanna then went on to say "I don't care where you are or if you are with your girlfriend", and at that moment I hung up the phone. My phone immediately rang again showing my son Aiden's number and I just dismissed it. There was absolutely no purpose for the call other than for Deanna to harass me by making sarcastic and suggestive statements to me about where I was and who I was with. I have blocked Deanna's number taking away her ability to call me from her own phone. This is why she circumvented the order again, this time using my son

BY THIS SUPPORTING DEPOSITION MAKE THE FOLLOWING ALLEGATION OF FACT IN CONNECTION WITH AN ACCUSATORY INSTRUMENT FILED, OR ABOUT TO BE FILED, WITH THIS COURT AGAINST THE ABOVE DEFENDANT.

Aiden to call me on his phone. This non-essential messaging continued on to January 6 and Deanna then messaged me that she wants me to follow NYS guidelines for rapid COVID testing before I travel in the future. She doesn't know my schedule or my travel itinerary. She accused me of being in states I did not visit. She again used the AppClose messaging system with a similar basic message on January 7 which I ignored. Later that evening Deanna continued harassing me again using AppClose by messaging me about a water bill and clearly not about our children as directed by the Court. In addition Deanna began to message me again using AppClose on January 8 about our adult son and was looking for me to pay for additional expenses not outlined in our current order. I again told Deanna that the app was only to be used for information for the children and not for requesting additional money or for continuous harassment. Our son Evan who she references in the message is soon to be 21 years of age and capable of contacting me directly if he needs money. When he did, I paid his bill as requested. Deanna repeatedly uses any excuse or situation to constantly harass and annoy me. I have told her repeatedly not to have direct contact with me as ordered by Judge Zambito and only through the AppClose app, only about our children. Deanna has continuously harassed me despite direct orders from Family Court not to do so. I am requesting the Orleans County District Attorney's Office to investigate this matter and to prosecute Deanna to the fullest extent of the law. In addition I am requesting an order of protection against Deanna. The above facts are true to the best of my memory and knowledge.

Narrative
-Victim David Bellavia reports that he is in the process of being divorced from his wife Deanna Bellavia and has been living at 2289 Oak Orchard River Rd. in the Town of Ridgeway since January of 2016. Most recently David states that in December of 2019 he filed for divorce and that the matter is currently pending in Genesee County Family Court. David states that sometime around July of 2020 business associates of his in Texas began receiving harassing voicemails and messages on their social media accounts that were of a harassing nature and defaming to David. David also states that Deanna was additionally posting items on her blog that were of a harassing nature. David states that they appeared in Genesee County Family Court on September 24, 2020 and that the above stated harassment was presented to the Court. At that time an order was drafted that Deanna was not to communicate in any manner with any of David's coworkers, employers, military supervisors. In addition to that the only communication between David and Deanna was to be about the children and only via an app called "Appclose" that was previously agreed upon. David states that Deanna continued to harass him using the Appclose app by accusing him of having an affair and making allegations of physical abuse. David states that Deanna would message him and basically try and extort him by threatening to expose things that are alleged in the divorce in an attempt to ruin his professional career if he doesn't settle the divorce on her terms. David states that they were back in Genesee County family court on December 10, 2020 to re-address Deanna's continued harassment of himself and her continuous violation of the Courts order. At that time David states that the Court was clear that Deanna is only to communicate with David specifically about the children and only through Appclose. David states that he received repeated messages on Appclose from Deanna on January 5, 2021 about insurance cards that was not necessary as she acknowledged that there was secondary insurance in effect and it was simply a matter of Deanna having to call the insurance company, which she is authorized to do, and get the information she needed. David states that even after providing Deanna the information that she requested she then had their 13 year old son Aiden call David and then Deanna got on the phone harassing David about where he was and whom he was with. On January 6, 2021 David states that Deanna continued to harass him with messages on Appclose about NYS guidelines for COVID testing as it relates to his travel. David states that Deanna continued this harassment in a similar way on January 7, 2021 to include messages on Appclose about a water bill which was clearly not about the children. David states that on January 8, 2021 Deanna again continued to harass him about their adult son Evan looking for David to pay additional expenses that are not outlined in there current court order. David states that Deanna continues to use any excuse or situation that she can for a reason to contact him and harass him despite his repeated requests that she not contact him outside of direct information about the children. David states that even after direct orders from Family Court Deanna continues to use the Appclose app to harass and annoy him not solely for the purpose of communicating about essential information about the children. David wishes for Deanna to be charged with harassment for her conduct and also requests an order of protection. -01/26/21 R/O (Reporting Officer - Inv Black) did complete information's charging Deanna Bellavia with the above listed charges and Town of Ridgeway Justice Kujawa signed an arrest warrant for Bellavia for said charges. R/O did speak to Deanna and then ultimately her Attorney Steve Sercu and made arrangements for Deanna to turn herself in on 1/27/21 at 1700 Hrs.

Case No.21020007

Order to Counsel in Criminal Case

Deanna M. Bellavia, Defendant

Hon. Joseph R. Kujawa

The court, pursuant to an Administrative Order of the Chief Administrative Judge and in furtherance of the fair administration of justice, issues this order as both a reminder and a directive that counsel uphold their constitutional, statutory and ethical responsibilities in the above-captioned proceedings.

To the Prosecutor:

The District Attorney and the Assistant responsible for the case, or, if the matter is not being prosecuted by the District Attorney, the prosecuting agency and its assigned representative, is directed to make timely disclosures of information favorable to the defense as required by Brady v Maryland, 373 US 83 (1963), Giglio v United States, 405 US 150 (1972), People v Geaslen, 54 NY2d 510 (1981), and their progeny under the United States and New York State constitutions, and pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law (CPL) article 245 and Rule 3.8(b) of the New York State Rules of Professional Conduct, as described hereafter.

- The District Attorney and the Assistant responsible for the case have a duty to learn of such favorable information that is known to others acting on the government's behalf in the case, including the police, and should therefore confer with investigative and prosecutorial personnel who acted in this case and review their and their agencies' files directly related to the prosecution or investigation of this case.
- Favorable information could include, but is not limited to:
 - a) Information that impeaches the credibility of a testifying prosecution witness, including (i) benefits, promises, rewards or inducements, express or tacit, made to a witness by a law enforcement official or law enforcement victim services agency in connection with giving testimony or cooperating in the case; (ii) a witness's prior inconsistent statements, written or oral; (iii) a witness's prior convictions and uncharged criminal conduct; (iv) information that tends to show that a witness has a motive to lie to inculcate the defendant, or a bias against the defendant or in favor of the complainant or the prosecution; and (v) information that tends to show impairment of a witness's ability to perceive, recall, or recount relevant events, including impairment of that ability resulting from mental or physical illness or substance abuse.

- b) Information that tends to exculpate, reduce the degree of an offense, or support a potential defense to a charged offense.
 - c) Information that tends to mitigate the degree of the defendant's culpability as to a charged offense, or to mitigate punishment.
 - d) Information that tends to undermine evidence of the defendant's identity as a perpetrator of a charged crime, such as a non-identification of the defendant by a witness to a charged crime or an identification or other evidence implicating another person in a manner that tends to cast doubt on the defendant's guilt.
 - e) Information that could affect in the defendant's favor the ultimate decision on a suppression motion.
- Favorable information shall be disclosed whether or not it is recorded in tangible form, and irrespective of whether the prosecutor credits the information.
 - Favorable information must be timely disclosed in accordance with the United States and New York State constitutional standards, and in accordance with the timing provisions of CPL article 245. The prosecutor is reminded that the obligation to disclose is a continuing one. Prosecutors should strive to determine if favorable information exists. The prosecutor shall disclose the information expeditiously upon its receipt and shall not delay disclosure if it is obtained earlier than the time period for disclosure in CPL 245.10(1).
 - A protective order may be issued for good cause pursuant to CPL 245.70 with respect to disclosures required under this order.
 - Failures to provide disclosure in accordance with CPL article 245 are subject to the available remedies and sanctions for nondisclosures pursuant to CPL 245.80.

Only willful and deliberate conduct will constitute a violation of this order or be eligible to result in personal sanctions against a prosecutor.

To Defense Counsel

Defense counsel, having filed a notice of appearance in the above captioned case, is obligated under both the New York State and the United States Constitution to provide effective representation of defendant. Although the following list is not meant to be exhaustive, counsel shall remain cognizant of the obligation to:

- a) Confer with the client about the case and keep the client informed about all significant developments in the case;
- b) Timely communicate to the client any and all guilty plea offers, and provide reasonable advice about the advantages and disadvantages of such guilty plea offers and about the potential sentencing ranges that would apply in the case;
- c) When applicable based upon the client's immigration status, ensure that the client receives competent advice regarding the immigration consequences in the case as required under Padilla v Kentucky, 559 US 356 (2010);

- d) Perform a reasonable investigation of both the facts and the law pertinent to the case (including as applicable, e.g., visiting the scene, interviewing witnesses, subpoenaing pertinent materials, consulting experts, inspecting exhibits, reviewing all discovery materials obtained from the prosecution, researching legal issues, etc.), or, if appropriate, make a reasonable professional judgment not to investigate a particular matter;
- e) Comply with the requirements of the New York State Rules of Professional Conduct regarding conflicts of interest, and when appropriate, timely notify the court of a possible conflict so that an inquiry may be undertaken or a ruling made;
- f) Possess or acquire a reasonable knowledge and familiarity with criminal substantive, procedural and evidentiary law to ensure constitutionally effective representation in the case; and
- g) When the statutory requirements necessary to trigger required notice from the defense are met (e.g., a demand, intent to introduce particular evidence, etc.), comply with the statutory notice obligations for the defense as specified in CPL 250.10, 250.20, and 250.30.

So ordered.

The Criminal Procedure Law provides that presentation of a copy of this order of protection to any police officer or peace officer acting pursuant to his or her special duties shall authorize and in some situations may require, such officer to arrest a defendant who is alleged to have violated its terms and to bring him or her before the Court to face whatever penalties may be imposed therefor.

Federal law provides that this order must be honored and enforced by state and tribal courts, including courts of a state, the District of Columbia, a commonwealth, territory or possession of the United States, if it is established that the person against whom the order is sought has been or will be afforded reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard in accordance with state law sufficient to protect that person's rights (18 U.S.C. § 2265, 2266).

It is a federal offense to: cross state lines to violate an order of protection; cross state lines to engage in stalking, harassment or domestic violence against an intimate partner or family member; possess, purchase, ship, transfer or receive a handgun, rifle, shotgun or other firearm or ammunition following a conviction of a domestic violence misdemeanor involving the use or attempted use of physical force or a deadly weapon; or (except for military or law enforcement officers while on duty) possess, purchase, ship, transfer or receive a handgun, rifle, shotgun or other firearm or ammunition while an order of protection, issued after notice and an opportunity to be heard, that protects an intimate partner against assault, harassment, threatening and/or stalking, remains in effect (18 U.S.C. § 222(g)(1), 222(g)(9), 2261, 2261A, 2262).

¹ Use this form for orders of protection, issued to protect victims of domestic violence as defined in Soc. Serv. Law § 459-a, that must be entered on the statewide registry of orders of protection (Exec. L. § 221-a).

9 THE COURT: That's what I'm --
10 (Court reporter interruption due to multiple participants
11 speaking.)

12 THE COURT: Look, I'm not -- I'm not going to 13 issue an order of protection. But I am going to reiterate and
14 reemphasize that ~~I don't want there to be communication~~
15 ~~between these parties. There's no reason for it other than~~
16 ~~between the app that -- the AppClose that was discussed with~~
17 ~~respect to visitation with the children, and that should be an~~
18 ~~easy thing to do.~~ And regardless of what comes up or what you
19 discover in the course of this, it's not an excuse.

20 MS. ADAMS: I just want to make clear, too, your 21 order that you put -- not only in the order to show cause that
22 you signed but also the orders you made September 24th are
23 valid and in force and effect. She is not to be making
24 disparaging statements. She is not to be contacting
25 employers, former employers. You already said all this.

I am trying to make sure COVID protocols are being followed to keep our children healthy. You traveled out of state and interacted with countless massless strangers. You accused me of "not cooperating" and that is why you couldn't bring them to your house. I wanted them to go there. I am not harassing you! Please stop with the fabrications and drama. My communication is all about our children, their health and well being. They will see you next week! Please be COVID-safe when traveling.

Dec 30, 11:22 PM

The children's attorney, Jake - who is wonderful - encouraged them to talk to me about their feelings, concerns, worries, etc. Please don't chastise them for doing so. Also, please stop insulting Jake to them. He is their advocate and a good one! They really like and trust him. Let's work on co-parenting in a healthy way in the New Year!

I want you to be happy and to work together to raise these wonderful children. It would be great if we could communicate without drama. I wasn't being sarcastic. There was no harassment. Absolutely no accusations. We aren't together. All I was trying to say you don't have to hide anything. I hope you have someone....and that the children can meet and build a relationship with! I wasn't being rude or mean. I am letting go of any negativity and I honestly wish you well!

Btw, Aiden did NOT have any allergy problems. So, that is great news! And whatever you guys did - the musty smell we always talked about is gone - their coats smelled fine!

And they only told me because it was strange for them that you left the room six times "to check on something." We have a very open relationship and they trust me. I am proud of that. Confirming your next visit is January 9th?

Dec 31, 12:16 PM

I checked on his Christmas gift that came late and didn't want them to see the mess of what the roof did in the other room.

This allegation is outrageous. And is in direct violation of the judge.

Dec 31, 12:17 PM ✓

Oh my word. I didn't make the allegation. It is what they believed. I wasn't there. Stop

Evan may be of adult age, but he is on the spectrum and is going to require a little more from us as he goes through college. It's overwhelming for him. February rent will begin being covered by room & board cost, but that money doesn't go through until the drop, add period at RIT.

Jan 08, 06:44 AM

This app is not to be used for anything other than information for the children. I have asked you repeatedly. Not to shake me down for even more money. I have told you this is harassing. You violated the order again with two phone calls last week. This is not cool. Evan can contact me if he needs money.

I am done with all of this deanna.

Stop communicating with me. For the final time.

I am not shaking you down for money. Our son needs help. I have given him so much money this past semester for expenses. You know very well he has a difficult time communicating with you. I needed the health insurance information and you refused to provide it! Enough of your outright lies. You are expected to help with college costs. Every message I have sent is all about our children. You are also required to pay the water bill
